

What is Spouse Education and Career Opportunities?

Career Exploration

Identify career interests and aptitudes and find information about today's job market and work opportunities, including portable skills and careers, entrepreneurship and top federal employment options.

Free comprehensive career counseling services are available to all eligible military spouses through the Military OneSource Spouse Career Center. Staffed by certified Career Counselors, the career center can help military spouses with creating an action plan targeting education programs, financial aid options, training program resources and credential or licensing information.

Call 800-342-9647 or visit <http://militaryonesource.mil/seco> for more information.

Education, Training and Licensing

Identify education, training and licensure or certification opportunities, as well as financial aid resources and scholarships.

The My Career Advancement Account Scholarship offers up to a maximum of $4,000 for tuition with an annual fiscal year cap of $2,000 to eligible military spouses who are pursuing a license or certification, certificate or associate degree in a portable career field and occupation. Spouses of active-duty service members in pay grades E-1 to E-5, W-1 to W-2 and O-1 to O-2 on Title 10 military orders are eligible for the scholarship.

Career Connections

Connect with corporations, government organizations and nonprofits to gain meaningful, long-term, portable employment.

The Military Spouse Employment Partnership connects military spouses to more than 270 partner employers who have committed to recruit, hire, promote and retain military spouses in portable careers. To help with their introduction, spouses are encouraged to self-identify when contacting or applying with these employment partners.
